Appointment of New Controller of True Key Hotels & Resorts

True Key Hotels & Resorts announces Basit Chaudhry to lead accounting operations

November 30, 2022 (Radium Hot Springs, B.C.) - True Key Hotels & Resorts Ltd., a leader in hotel and resort management in Western Canada, announced today the appointment of Basit Chaudhry to the position of controller. Mr. Chaudhry will become the company's principal accounting officer.

Basit has proven to be a well-respected leader throughout his career, having held many notable positions, including the director of finance and IT support at the Hyatt Regency Calgary, director of finance and business support at Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise, and assistant director of finance at the Delta Kananaskis Lodge. His career has also included time as an entrepreneur developing and managing his own accounting firm over the past two years.

"We are very excited to welcome Basit to our team and looking forward to the business acumen and skills he will bring to our accounting department," stated Michael Anderson, president of True Key Hotels & Resorts Ltd. "His wealth of experience will be a tremendous benefit as our accounting department evolves and our business needs change. He will lead our financial operations to the next level and we look forward to welcoming him to the team."

The accounting department will continue to uphold the traditions of which True Key is so proud, while striving to further enhance service quality and brand value into the future, as genuine care and comfort of guests and owners is the highest priority. True Key Hotels & Resorts strive to operate a thriving and respected resort management business that delivers memorable vacation and vacation ownership experiences.
